TEACHING EXPERIENCE

ENLIGHTIUM ACADEMY		2016–
High School Instructor and Curriculum Support
<ul style="list-style-type: none">○ Teach Bible, Psychology, and C.S. Lewis, and help with admin tasks○ Was the first to write an online course for the company since no Psychology courses were offered.<ul style="list-style-type: none">● As a result, others have followed suit, and now the company has several employees that write courses, filling curriculum gaps that would otherwise exist, and giving us a competitive advantage over other online and/or Christian schools.○ As a result of writing the first course and my expertise with the software, I now provide oversight and guidance to all course writers (answering questions; making suggestions; checking content, grammar, and the overall aesthetic).
UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN MISSISSIPPI		2020
Adjunct Faculty in Philosophy
<ul style="list-style-type: none">○ Taught two 100% online asynchronous sections of Ethics and the Good Life.○ Used Canvas and Zoom extensively.○ Was officially hired on the day that classes began due to a professor leaving; this enabled the Philosophy Department to go ahead with the courses since 45 students were enrolled in each section (student evaluations available)
UNIVERSITY OF EDINBURGH		2018–2019
Tutor - God in Philosophy; Studying Religions

- Facilitated discussion in groups of 10–15 students based on the readings and topics covered in the main lectures; also discussed additional reading.

SPOKANE FALLS COMMUNITY COLLEGE

2016–2017

Adjunct Faculty in Philosophy

- Taught a total of four sections of Introduction to Philosophy
- Due to an error in scheduling, they contacted me on the day that classes began. I was required to begin the next day, schedule the first two weeks with PDFs, and build the course in Canvas in short notice. This prevented them from having to cancel both sections, each of which was a full course with 30 students.
- Responsible for creating syllabus, grading, meeting with students, etc. (LMS: Blackboard)

PEARL RIVER COMMUNITY COLLEGE

2014–2015

Adjunct Faculty in Philosophy

- Taught Introduction to Philosophy in traditional and hybrid format.
 - This enabled PRCC in Poplarville to offer in-person philosophy courses for the first time in years at their campus
- Responsible for creating syllabus, grading, meeting with students, etc. (LMS: Canvas)
